EDWIN CONGDON,

Town Clerk.

REPORT OF TOWN AGENT.

The town agent would report that upon entering upon the duties of his office he found two suits in progress in which the town of Clarendon was interested; viz.: The case of Rutland vs. Clarendon; this being a suit to recover the sum of $728.50, expenses incurred by said Rutland in behalf of one Winslow, a pauper, claimed by them to be chargeable to the town of Clarendon. Upon investigation of the case and of the testimony likely to be produced therein, I was firmly convinced that the town of Rutland could not sustain the action. The selectmen of Rutland, however, wished for a meeting to confer with us on the subject with a view to an amicable settlement. This was granted, and a time and place appointed. Prior to this time, however, a decision of the Supreme Court was handed down which effectually disposed of any claims that Rutland might have, and at their own instance the suit was discontinued without any cost to the town of Clarendon.

The second case was that known as the "Cemetery" suit, or "Clarendon enjoined by C. C. Pierce, Esq.," as mentioned in the last annual report. This case was settled by the petitioners withdrawing their suit and each party paying their own costs.

No new suits have been instituted and the town of Clarendon is at present without any pending litigation.

No charge has been made for personal services, and the only expense connected with the office has been the sum of $2 paid for legal advice.

REPORT OF OVERSEER OF THE POOR.

Your overseer would report that at the beginning of his term of office he found dependent upon the town for support, six persons, viz.: Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Sam'l. Pitts and her three children, and Charlotte Pratt, a child about three years old. Mrs. Whitney was being boarded and cared for by Mrs. G. N. Pitts for the sum of $2 per week, and who has kept her at the same rate up to the present time. Charlotte Pratt was being kept by Mrs. E. B. Holden for the sum of $2 per week. Being satisfied that she could be suitably kept at a much less rate I was about to take her away when Mr. and Mrs. Holden proposed to formally adopt her, which they finally did, the town paying the probate fees of $5.

A good home was found for the oldest Pitts girl with a family at Center Rutland, who have taken the child to bring up. Mrs. Pitts was married March 24, and together with the youngest child ceased to receive aid from the town. Her husband was hired to keep the second girl for $1 per week, which he did until he moved into an adjoining town taking the child with him, which action under the present law released this town from all liability for her support.

One of the principal items of expense, aggregating nearly one-half of the total amount of the poor bill, has been for board, care, nursing and medical attendance for Charles Dorset, who broke his leg by falling from a building June 15th, and has since been a town charge until within a few weeks.

About the 1st of May I was called upon to provide for Horace Tower, who was suffering from a gangrene sore on his foot. His case proved a bad one, necessitating a considerable outlay for board, care and medical attendance. Learning that he had recently been granted a pension, and believing that such money should be used for his proper care and support, an application was made to the Probate Court on behalf of the town for a guardian to take charge of any such money that might come to him, and the pension agent at Concord to hold in his hands the amount then due him pending this application. Before the time set for this hearing Tower left Clarendon, thus releasing the town from further liability for his support. At the hearing Tower, by his attorney, offered, in case the application was not pressed, to reimburse the town for all expense incurred for his support. The offer was accepted and the application is held in abeyance, and the overseer received through the judge of probate the sum of $103.03, the actual amount spent for Tower's benefit, and the only expense to the town has been the probate expenses, amounting to $10.36.

About the 20th of June I received a notice from the supervisors of the insane directing me to remove from the asylum on or before July 1st as not a suitable person for state aid, one Louisa Smith, committed from the town of Clarendon as a public charge. Learning that the said Louisa Smith had a mortgage for a good and sufficient support upon real estate amply sufficient therefor, and was also understood to have considerable property in the West, her guardian and also the person holding the title of the real estate under the mortgage were notified to take her away and provide for her. Failing to do so I went to Brattleboro and brought her to Clarendon and hired her kept here. Steps were taken to secure her maintenance from the property on which she held a claim, but before final action was taken the party holding the property came and took her away, paying all expenses I had incurred in her behalf, amounting to $17, and guaranteed to give her a proper maintenance and support. No charges have been made to the town for any expenses on her account.

Only one person (Mrs. Whitney) is at present receiving aid from the town.

Orders have been drawn for all bills contracted up to the present time and also for the keeping of Mrs. Whitney to March 1st. The account also includes orders drawn for two bills amounting to $9.46 contracted by the former overseer.

Provision must be made for a state tax of 9 cents on the dollar.
A state school tax of 12 cents on the dollar.
A special state school tax of 5 cents on the dollar.

A highway tax of 15 cents on the dollar, if paid in money.

It will require a tax of 22 cents on the dollar of the present grand list to pay the present town indebtedness.

Your auditors would recommend that the several taxes be included in one bill, and that a tax of 75 cents on the dollar be raised, which will pay the present indebtedness, provide for the above necessary taxes, and leave a margin for current expenses.

All which is respectfully submitted for your consideration.
